A NOTE BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

Welcome to Brentwood

Brentwood is where Nashville goes to exhale. Just over the Davidson County line in Williamson County, it trades city bustle for big lots, winding greenways and some of the most sought-after public schools in the state.

Life here centers on the parks, the club and the Friday-night game. Yet downtown, Green Hills and the airport are all an easy drive. Here's how locals spend their time.

AT A GLANCE

Williamson County schools

Brentwood High and Ravenwood High, plus Brentwood Academy and Currey Ingram nearby.

Room to breathe

Acre-plus lots, gated enclaves and estate streets lined with mature trees.

Close to everything

I-65 puts downtown Nashville and Cool Springs each a short drive away.

No state income tax

Tennessee doesn't tax wages, a draw for families relocating from high-tax states.

BRENTWOOD, WILLIAMSON COUNTY

Parks, Paths & Pastimes

Brentwood puts real effort into its green space: miles of paved greenway connect the parks, and summer evenings mean lawn chairs and live music.
